

A STORY OF A REFUGEE

EARTHQUAKE IN TURKEY

- ▣ My name is Lamar, I'm 11 years old and I'm come from Turkey. I had to leave my country because of an earthquake. I was at school like every day, when suddenly we all started to move. When the earthquake stopped we all started to running to find a shelter. What I saw when I left the building was a very ugly picture. Everything was destroyed and there was durst everywhere.

- ▣ From the first minute of the earthquake I thought if my family was safe. Fortunately, my family and I had planned a place to meet in the event of the earthquake. I quickly ran to this place and I was waiting my family. A little further down I saw my grandparents and ran there. We walked to hours to find a safe haven away from my country. Finally we went to a neighboring country where I also saw my parents.

- ▣ It was a very scary moment in my life that I will never forget. No matter how well I describe it to you, you will not be able to understand the fear and anxiety I was experiencing at that moment.
